

MHS 1964 Class Notes Issue 1 - July 2015

This is the inaugural issue of "MHS 1964 Class Notes" - future issues will be published at least quarterly, and more often if the volume of news from classmates warrants it. PLEASE send your news to classnotes@miltonhighclassof1964.com for future publication so we can all stay in touch with each other. The more news the better!

Dennis "Moose" Brogna writes from Murrells Inlet, SC, "I had a total hip replacement on June 22nd, and am now recovering. If all goes well, I'll be working my favorite basketball camp at the Mass. Maritime Academy July 26 - 30 – my 30th year doing this."

Brad Burgess and Cynthia (Lien) Burgess write from Old Lyme, CT, "Brad and I just got back from a trip to London. We went to Highclere Castle where the PBS show "Downton Abbey" is filmed. Also we went to Bampton where they film all the village scenes. It was a fantastic tour! On October 1 a group of us including Bob McCusker, Ron Peterson (& wife Ginny), and Linda (Lewis) Santoro (& husband Lou) are going to Lucerne Switzerland for 3 days and then an 8-day riverboat cruise up the Rhine River to Amsterdam where we will be for 3 days. Happy Summer!"

Ron Enholm writes from Encino, CA, "Christie and I just returned from her 45th Cornell reunion in Ithaca, NY. After a night in her old hometown of Cooperstown, NY, we drove along the Hudson River to see the various Vanderbilt, Roosevelt and Rockefeller estates, as well as West Point and the Washington Irving home in Sleepy Hollow. The final two days was spent with friends in Greenwich Village."

Diane (Gilbert) Schlanger writes from Oakland Gardens, NY, "I just returned from a three-week trip to beautiful Croatia and Slovenia and looking forward to a visit to L.A. in July for a family wedding and a visit with Arlene (Pearlstein) Haasis and her husband Michael. Then, there's more good news in October - the birth of my second grandson. Of course, I have more travel plans in 2016 - Patagonia in February and Morocco in May. Retirement is wonderful!"

Gretchen (Greeley) Waters wrote from Rehoboth, MA, "On June 6th, along with my fellow coworkers (Euclid Financial Services LLC), I will be participating in the Tough Mudder Event at Mount Snow, VT. I have been in training since the beginning of the year and am now up to 50 push-ups at a time. All monies we raise will go directly to the Wounded Warrior Project, which we strongly support."

Nancy Leisher wrote from The Villages, FL, "My granddaughter Kathleen Young will be attending Harvard University in the fall, where she was recruited as a field hockey player at the age of 16 after making second team All American in high school! I was up in Vermont for her graduation, then we will go to Lancaster, PA, where she will play and train for a week with the U19 Futures Elite team (a lot of those girls go on to be in the Olympics)."

Bob McCusker writes from London, England. "I'm currently in London visiting with friends I knew back when I lived in London. I hope you all have a wonderful summer. Happy Summer Solstice!"

Paul Nangeroni writes from Monrovia, MD, "In 2004 I recorded and produced a CD with my friend from the Army Band, pianist Alex Smith. It consists of show tunes that became standards decades ago. A SHOWCASE OF STANDARDS can be heard online at soundcloud.com/paulnangeroni."

Bob Powers writes from Hyannis Port, MA, "Sandy and I sold our home in Barrington, RI, in June and have moved to Hyannis Port, MA, on Cape Cod. We recently celebrated our 46th anniversary with a short trip to Block Island, RI, where we had never stayed overnight despite living in RI for 33 years. I am still working part time as a banking consultant, but expect to fully retire from consulting when I turn 70 – too many other things I still want to do."

Joe Sidoti writes from The Villages, FL, "After graduating from Springfield College I moved to Minneapolis because I couldn't find a coaching/teaching job in MA. After teaching for three years at a Community College, I got into the sporting goods industry and eventually morphed into the golf business. Finally, thank God, in 2011 we moved from MN to The Villages, Florida...can you tell how much I "liked" living in MN???? If you ever travel to FL, especially Orlando, give us a call and drop by for a stay. We are 45 min. from the Orlando airport. Hope to see you soon!"

Donna (Winer) Foster writes from Canandaigua, NY, "Hey there, snowbirds from Class of 1964. We have had a Milton High reunion south in South Florida for the past 3 years. If you are in the South Florida area between December 15 and March 15, we would love to have you join us. Please contact me at donna60@hotmail.com if you are interested."

David Wluka writes from Sharon, MA, "An article about our ancestral cemetery restoration project in Poland has just been published in Bostonia, the Boston University Alumni Magazine. I'm a triple threat there – a CGS, CLA and GRAD alum. Here is a link for those interested in reading the article:
